FOREWORD

If you are a person who has studied church history, you'll agree with me that of all the councils that were ever held, the most debated question was about the Deity of Jesus Christ — was Jesus God or a human being? Was He equal with or less than God? And should we worship Him?

The purpose of this book is not entirely about explaining the doctrine of the Trinity, but rather, I wrote it to correct some certain errors which I feel have robbed some of their beautiful and sweet fellowship with the Lord.

In this book I explained the Deity of Jesus Christ, and the personality and Deity of the Holy Spirit (The word deity means Supreme Being, Creator, or God). The bible tells us that it is only by making Jesus Christ Lord that one is saved. In other words, denying the Lordship of Jesus results in eternal damnation.

Paul wrote the letter to the Colossian church when he had heard that there were some in that church who taught the believers that Jesus Christ wasn't God at all, and was in no way the center of Salvation.

Jesus Christ is God Himself, and because of that only He is the center of salvation. There is no salvation outside of Jesus. Some people have been led into believing the error that Jesus is a little god or an angel. They see Jesus as little or smaller than God. Let me say this: what makes Jesus able to save us is only because He is God. A god or an angel cannot save.

There are some who think that Jesus is one of the ways to salvation. But this is all wrong. If someone gets to understand that Jesus is God himself there will be no way that person will ever think of another way to salvation. There are some who equate Jesus to a certain religious leader and because of that they are led to believe that their religious leader can provide salvation just as Christ does.

Because of these errors, I wrote this book in order that a believer's faith be founded strongly on the Lord Jesus Christ who is the Author and Finisher of our faith and salvation.

The second part of this book is devoted to the Holy Spirit whom Jesus left with us when He went to heaven. It is so essential that a believer be acquainted with the Holy Spirit because fellowship with God is in no way possible without the Holy Spirit. As I continuously repeat throughout this book, the three persons of the Trinity cannot be separated. The same way we honor and revere the Father is the same way in which we should revere the Son and the Holy Spirit.

DEDICATIONS

I wish to dedicate this book to my two friends:

Able Dambuza—with whom I used to prayerfully study the topic of Jesus' Deity as well as that of the Holy Spirit.

Pastor Pinoc Manuel—the thoughts we used to share and exchange concerning the subjects covered in this book have contributed a lot.

CHAPTER ONE

THERE ARE THREE PERSONS BUT ONE GOD

*1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost:
and these three are one."*

I am going to be talking about the oneness of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. So according to the verse we have read, the Father is one thing with the Word and with the Holy Spirit. No one will have a problem with the fact that the Father has a personality, but the problem one might have is whether the Word and the Holy Spirit have a personality.

Since the scripture says the Father is one thing with the Word and with the Holy Spirit, it will then mean that both the Word and the Holy Spirit do have a personality. Of course that will then need some explanation.

Special Note:

This portion of scripture, 1 John 5:7, is not included in most versions of the bible like the NIV and others. The reason for that is that it is debated whether the portion of scripture was in the original manuscripts or not. The manuscripts from which the translators of the KJV extracted it from were later manuscripts than the earlier ones from which the NIV and other versions of the bible extracted their texts. Some people are therefore led to believe that the portion of scripture was not written by John himself. However, I strongly believe that the portion of scripture was both inspired and written by the Apostle John himself. The reason for that is that in other of John's books he wrote some things which harmonizes with the idea found in 1 John 5:7 as I shall show you in this book.

The Word

Apostle John in his gospel showed us that the Word is a person.

John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God"

John called the Word 'God'. It may now make some sense if we return to 1 John 5:7, our main text. But there will still be a problem with whether the Holy Spirit is God, or even a person.

Before I begin to explain about the personality of the Holy Spirit, others may still be stuck on the first one—the Word; as to how in the world He can God. This is because if we continue reading chapter 1 of the gospel of John, we will notice that the Word he was talking about is Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

There are some in some Christian denominations who argue the fact that Jesus Christ is God. Even some who are part of the denominations that believe in Jesus as God are not so sure about their belief. They instinctively think that Jesus, since He is the Son of God, is only a little god or somehow smaller than God. With this in their minds they somehow dethrone Jesus from being God in their imaginations.

John 1:14 “And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.”

Have you looked closely at that verse? That Word became flesh and we began to see Him as the Son of God. This is the reason why some say Jesus is not God but is only the Son of God; thus portraying that He is smaller than God, that is, a little God. But this is all wrong. Because of this confusion let me first of all, before I talk about the Holy Spirit, prove that Jesus Christ is God and NOT a little god or smaller than God.

PART ONE:

THE DEITY OF JESUS CHRIST

CHAPTER TWO

DEMONSTRATING CHRIST'S DEITY

Apart from John 1 there are also other scriptures that show us that Jesus Christ is God. Let me start by proving that He is God and then explain how this relates to Him as being the Son of God.

He is God and is seated on God's throne

Hebrews 1:8 "But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom"

The father himself calls Jesus, His Son, 'God'; and that He has a throne which endures forever. This throne of Jesus is the same throne on which the Father is seated. Revelation 3:21 proves it:

Revelation 3:21 "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

Whenever the bible say Jesus is seated at the right hand of God, some people think it means there are two thrones and Jesus' throne is at the right side of the Father's. It is not like that; the phrase the right hand of God's throne simply means Jesus has been given full authority on the throne of God.

By looking at that scripture on revelation 3:21; we see that Jesus is saying that He is seated on His Father's throne; NOT on another throne next to His Father's.

1 Timothy 6:14-16 "That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; 16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.”

From this scripture there is no doubt that Jesus Christ is God and ought to be worshiped.

He is the creator of all things

John 1:3 “All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made”

Isaiah called Him God with us

Matthew 1:22-23 “Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.”

When Jesus came to this earth, it was God who came to this earth in the person of Jesus. Apostle Paul also proved this in his letter to Timothy:

1 Timothy 3:16 “And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.”

There is no doubt that he is talking of Jesus here because He is the only one we know who was manifested in the flesh, preached to the whole world, believed in the world, and then ascended to heaven as written on Acts 1:10. Paul said it was God who came here as a human being.

Thomas called Him his Lord and his God

John 20:28-29 “And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.”

When Thomas said so, Jesus did not rebuke him; but rather He said, “You now believe because you have seen me.” In other words Jesus was simply saying, “You now believe that I am your Lord and God because you have seen me.”

He is our lord

Romans 10:9 “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved”

Only by acknowledging that Jesus is our lord are we saved. When you say Jesus is your Lord you are simply saying He is your God. It is therefore important to know who Jesus really is because that's where your salvation is. Your salvation is in your acknowledgement of Jesus' Lordship over your life.

CHAPTER THREE

IF HE IS GOD, ONE WITH GOD &
EQUAL WITH GOD, WHY THEN DOES THE BIBLE CALL HIM THE SON OF GOD?

This is the question most people have about the deity of Christ. They instinctively think that since the bible calls Him Son of God He is simply lower than God and some even go to a worse extreme and say He is just a little god or an angel. Because of this, some people have completely rejected the fact that Jesus is God and is equal with God; and those who accept that He is God, sometimes may have doubts with what they believe.

They may believe all the scriptures I have given which prove that He is God, but when they come across the other scriptures which relate to him as the Son of God they begin to have problems. They will think that He is somehow smaller than God or a little god.

In the year 2010, I met some people who taught about Jesus as the Son of God. In their teaching they were trying to dismiss the fact that Jesus is God and ought to be worshiped. They pointed out that if He was the Son of God then He was not God, but only His Son. They said He was only a little god, and was in no way equal with God. They used John 14:28 to support their belief:

John 14:28 “Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.”

From that scripture, one may be convinced that their doctrine was true. But they got confused when I opened to them the scriptures which points to Jesus as God.

Another scripture they quoted was John 20:17, when they were arguing that Jesus can't be God because He called His Father, “My God,” thus making Him a little god who is equal with people and not with God.

John 20:17 “Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God."

Because I had no time for arguments, I simply told them in my response that even the Father at one time called Jesus 'God'. And I opened to them that scripture in Hebrews.

Hebrews 1:8 "But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom"

So you see; even the Father Himself addressed His Son as God just as much as Jesus addressed His Father as God. This is because they are equal—they are One.

They also opened another scripture when they were stating that Jesus was the first to be created by God before Adam; and that after His creation, Jesus then created all other things. They opened Colossians 1:15 to support their point.

Colossians 1:15 "Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:"

Of course they were wrong, though they quoted scriptures. I know that a lot of good and God fearing Christians have been led into confusion by this group of people because they did not have a full understanding of these scriptures. Sadly, some were even led to deny the Lordship of Jesus over their lives.

As I have said before; receiving salvation requires that one acknowledge that Jesus is the Lord. If we fail to see Him as our God we will be robbed of our salvation or the blessings that come along with it.

I believe God laid it in my heart to help you to understand the deity of Christ. I want to show you from the scriptures that Jesus Christ is God; is equal with God, and that He was NOT created by God. I will shed some light on Colossians 1:15 together with John 14:28.

Jesus as the Son of God

It took me a couple of years studying overly the mystery about Jesus as the Son of God — is He equal with God or lower than God? In my study of the scriptures I came to a conclusion that there are two revelations we get from the scriptures about Jesus Christ being the Son of God. If you have noticed the scriptures I put earlier in this chapter, some of them seem to rest on the idea that Jesus being God's Son means that He is lower than God. Let's read John 14:28:

".....I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I" (John 14:28)

On the other hand, there are other scriptures like Hebrews 1:8 which reveal that Jesus being

God's Son actually means He is God, equal with God; and ought to be worshipped the same way we worship God. Let's read:

But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. (Hebrews 1:8)

The scripture clearly states that concerning the Son, God said, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever..." This means that the writer of the book of Hebrews taught like this: "Jesus is God because He is the Son of God." In other words, according to the revelation of this Apostle, whenever the bible addresses Jesus as the Son of God it is simply indicating that He is God.

This is the same revelation the Jews had whenever they would hear the phrase 'the Son of God'. Let's read the following account from the book of John:

John 10:31-36, "The Jews picked up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone me?" The Jews answered him, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God." Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'? If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken—do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?" (ESV)

You see, according to those Jews if one says, "I am the Son of God," the person was just as saying, "I am God." This is the idea behind most scriptures in the New Testament which address Jesus as the Son of God.

However, because there are other scriptures that convey a different thought like John 14:28 which seem to suggest that to say Jesus is God's Son is to say that He is lower than God, I have to, at this point, explain this idea.

On the same note, many people still find it hard to believe that Jesus is equal with God. They impulsively think since the bible calls Jesus the Son of God, He is therefore lower than God. I want you to follow behind me as I am going to explain deeper truths about Christ which will definitely transform your life.

The Son Or the Word?

From our opening text, John stated that the three which are one are the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit. Notice that he said the Word. When we talk about the trinity, there are few who say this. Many people like to say the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. That's true, but I believe John had a deeper understanding about the trinity when he said 'the Word' instead of 'the Son'.

By reading John's gospel, we will notice that he spoke much about Jesus as the Son of God. In chapter 1 of his gospel, John began by giving a background concerning Jesus whom he later referred to as the Son of God throughout his book. He said that in the beginning this Jesus was the Word before He became the Son. Let's read John 1:1-14 in its context:

John 1:1-14 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men... 14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. "

If you can notice; John is saying that in the beginning He was known to be the Word, but when He was made flesh, that is when we began to see a different revelation of Him as the only begotten Son of God (verse 14).

I believe that John, in his gospel, wanted to put across the fact that Jesus is the Son of God, but before he talked about that he first gave a background regarding how he got that revelation. So he first of all traced Christ's genealogy back into eternity when He used to be known as the Word who was with God, and was God.

John then showed to us that when this Word (who was God) was conceived in the womb of the Virgin Mary, that's when we began to see Him as the Son of God. But how is that so? How did it happen? Let's take a look at Luke 1:35 and see how Luke explains the same thing:

Luke 1:35, "And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

Mary wanted to know how she, in her state as a virgin who had not known a man, was going to conceive. The angel's reply was that the Holy Spirit was going to overshadow her and because of that the child which was to be born would be called the Son of God.

Take note of the word therefore in that verse. It shows that because of the conceiving of the Word in the womb of Mary, the child which was to be born would as a result be called the Son of God.

This is the same revelation John had—the fact that Jesus had been there already from the beginning as the Word, who was God, but when He became flesh that's when we began to see Him as the Son of God. According to Luke, the Holy Spirit was the one who was to overshadow Mary, and when the Child was conceived He was to be called the Son of God.

If you can notice; Luke was simply saying that the Holy Spirit was going to be the Father of the child; thereby making the Holy Spirit God and Jesus, His Son (the Son of the Holy Spirit).

CHAPTER FOUR

JESUS IS THE SECOND ADAM

Luke 3:38 "...Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God."

From this scripture Luke calls Adam the son of God. Adam, in that genealogy, was the only person who did not have a biological father and Luke says he was the son of God.

The Apostle Paul, in 1 Corinthians 15, taught us that Jesus came to this earth as the second and last Adam.

From here onwards I want you to bear in mind that Adam was called the son of God. This will help you understand everything I'm going to be explaining.

1 Corinthians 15:47 “The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

The first man, Adam, was just a man whose body was made from the dust of the ground, but the second man, Jesus Christ, did not come from the ground but He came as the Lord from heaven.

In other words Paul was saying that Jesus Christ was the Lord God who was made flesh (who became a man—the name Adam means man). But perhaps one may want to know why Jesus, being God, needed to become flesh.

The answer is simple. Jesus wanted to be identified with Adam who had failed in the Garden of Eden. Adam had sinned and died, and that wasn't God's will for mankind. God wanted mankind to live forever and dominate the earth, but when he sinned he died and ceased to have dominion over this earth.

The devil then took the rule over Adam and the whole earth because Adam had become spiritually dead. (You have to know and understand that before Adam died physically at age 930 he had died spiritually years back in the day that he ate the forbidden fruit).

The only way Adam could take back his authority over the earth and the Devil was only by resurrecting from the dead (resurrecting spiritually first and then later, physically). But it was impossible for him to resurrect. He had no power on his own to do that.

The only person who had the power to resurrect was the Lord God, who Himself is the Resurrection and the Life (John 11:25). So the Lord came to this earth to die in place of mankind, and then to resurrect in their place.

That's how Jesus redeemed mankind and gave them salvation so that they would begin to rule over the earth and over every creeping thing including the Devil. This restored dominion has been given to us Christians right now and we can exercise it by faith. However, it will manifest to the fullest height in that Day when our Lord shall appear in the sky to take His bride, the Church.

For God to redeem mankind, He first needed to be made exactly like Adam (mankind). Bear in mind that Adam was the son of God.

Hebrews 2:14 "Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil,"(ESV)

By coming in the flesh Jesus took our nature.

Hebrews 2:17 "Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people."(ESV)

How Jesus who is God became Adam

Adam was called the son of God because he had no other biological father except God. It was God who created him and made his body from the dust of the ground. Because of all that Adam was called the son of God.

In like manner, when Jesus (who was God) wanted to come as the second Adam, He needed to have His body formed in Mary's womb spiritually by the Holy Spirit, and not by biological means. He did not need a biological father because Adam had no biological father. Jesus wanted to come in the same fashion in which Adam came.

When all this happened, Jesus, who was and is God, became the second Adam, and was made the Son of God (like Adam). Paul said the second Adam is the Lord from heaven. So Jesus is God, and is still equal to God even though we call Him the Son of God.

This is because He was the Word (God) before He even was revealed to us as the Son of God. If we return to John 1:14 at this point we will then understand the reason why John told us that when the Word became flesh that is when we began to see Him as the only begotten (Son) of God.

Jesus is still God and equal with God, but He was made the Son of God for our sake. In other words, Jesus is a man version of God-God who became a man. Jesus wanted to become a man (Adam) so that He can die in our place and then resurrect to redeem us from the domain of darkness.

Colossians 1:13 "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son"

Don't be confused with this mystery

I have explained how Jesus is the Son of God and yet we say He is equal with God. I believe that this is now clear. He is NOT a little god or smaller than God. Jesus himself wanted the people of his day to understand this, but no one seemed to be interested.

People had asked Him a lot of questions but no one ever dared to ask Him about this mystery. Jesus Himself had always wanted them to ask Him about this mystery, so one day He Himself asked them:

Luke 20:41-44 But he said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son? 42 For David himself says in the Book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool."' David thus calls him Lord, so how is he his son? (ESV)

Jesus wanted people to understand this mystery. He said, “How can people say the Christ is the son of David whereas David himself at one time called Him his Lord. How then can He be his son if he calls Him his Lord?”

You see, Jesus knew that this mystery was a bit confusing—the fact that Jesus is the Son of God and yet the bible makes him God and equal with God. I believe, by the grace of God, I have shed some light on this, and helped to answer the unanswered question which Jesus posed on the people of His day.

CHAPTER FIVE

WHAT ABOUT COLOSSIANS 1:15? WAS HE CREATED?

Colossians 1:15 “Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:”

From Luke 1, I have showed that Adam was the son of God; meaning that he was the first and only man who was birthed by God directly, and not by biological means. In other words, Adam was the firstborn of God. And we know from Genesis 1:26-27 that he was given dominion over all God’s creation.

When he sinned he died spiritually first (in the day he ate the forbidden fruit) before he died physically at age 930. The bible, in the book of Romans, tells us what happened to the entire creation of God after Adam had sinned.

Romans 8:19-21 "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God"

The creature (or creation) was made subject to vanity (corruption or death) by God. In other words it was God who brought (though it was not His perfect will) death and corruption on the entire creation. This is the reason why trees come to a point where they die. Animals die, the entire earth gets corrupted with time. Everything on earth has a lifespan. But when did this corruption come on the creation? – It happened the day Adam sinned and died.

When Adam died, death and vanity came to all the creation that God had placed under him. This is why Solomon, in the book of Ecclesiastes, always repeated that all that is done under the sun is vanity. Vanity came to all the creation under the sun.

Romans 5:12 & 14 “Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned..... Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.”

Romans 8:19 which we have read previously, tells us that the creation wishes to be delivered from this vanity, death and corruption. Its deliverance can only come through the appearance (manifestation) of the sons of God.

So because Adam, the son God, had died, the whole creation went into the bondage of corruption. The only hope the creation had was the resurrection of its savior, Adam (the son of God), from the dead. If only Adam could resurrect, the whole creation could also be delivered from vanity. The creation hoped for the revealing of the son (or sons) of God.

I pointed out earlier that it was impossible for Adam to resurrect. Only the Lord from heaven, Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life, could do this. Jesus did it, and when He had done so, the bible says He was the first to resurrect from the dead. He resurrected first so that after Him the whole creation would then be raised (would be given life eternal). Take a look at the following scripture:

Revelation 1:5 “And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood”

CHAPTER SIX

JESUS WAS THE FIRST TO BE BORN AGAIN

It came as a shock to me when I learned from the scriptures that Jesus needed to be born again. He needed to be born again FIRST, so that we all could then be born again. According to Luke 1:35, which we have read; because Jesus was conceived in Mary's womb by the Holy Spirit, He was as a result called the Son of God.

But we know that after 33 years He died and was then resurrected after three days. When he resurrected that's when He was born again. Did you get the meaning of the phrase born again?

He was birthed by Mary, but He later died. Afterward He resurrected (He came back to life again). This is the meaning of being born again.

The same way Jesus was born again is the same way in which we are to be born again — We die with Christ just as Adam died (Christ died because He had taken the place of Adam) and then resurrect with Him spiritually. Look at the scripture below:

Acts 13:33 “God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.”

According to what Apostle Paul said in Acts 13:33, when Jesus was resurrected, that’s when the Father said, “You are my Son, this day I have given birth to you.” According to Paul, Jesus was born again the day He resurrected. Apostle Peter also said the same thing in his epistle.

1 Peter 1:3 “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead”

Peter tells us that we also were born again by the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. So you see; it was Jesus who FIRST got born again, and then we followed after.

To us; being born again means to die and resurrect with Christ. The day you prayed that prayer of salvation is when you died and resurrected with Christ in your spirit.

It happened in a moment, like in the twinkling of an eye. You may not have felt something taking place in your spirit at that time, but the truth was that you got born again that day—you died and resurrected with Christ in your spirit.

You became part of Christ's resurrection, that is, you became a part of the Firstborn of God—Jesus Christ. He is the head and you are part of His body—the church.

1 Corinthians 15:20 "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept."

This scripture tells us that the resurrection of Christ made Him to be the first fruit of all who are dead. His resurrection guarantees all the Christians who are in their graves right now that they will also resurrect when He shall appear in the clouds. There is also going to be a new heaven and a new earth, all because of Christ who, by His resurrection, delivered the whole creation from vanity. The creation is going to be made new again.

Revelation 21:1-2 "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. 2

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband"

What Colossians 1:15 means

It is now clear that Jesus wasn't created by God. That scripture is only talking about Him being the FIRST one to be born again from the dead by His resurrection. He then included us in His resurrection. We are also a part of the resurrection—we are born again.

The bible says Jesus has no beginning and no end, but rather, He is the Beginning and the End.

Revelation 1:8 “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty”

Hebrews 7:3 “Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.”

The Son of God has no beginning and no end. He was NOT created by God. He is God and NOT a little god. He is NOT Michael the archangel.

But what about that scripture in which Jesus refused to be called
'good' or God?

I once heard a certain guy who was preaching like this, “No one is good, even Jesus Himself refused to be called good or God.” He was quoting the scripture in Luke 18:18-19.

Luke 18:18-19 “And a ruler asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 19 And Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.”

I just laughed when I heard that guy saying that. I said in my mind, “This guy doesn’t know his bible.” You know what? You cannot build a doctrine based on one scripture. There are other scriptures in which Jesus said He is good.

John 10:11 “I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep”

Jesus, in that scripture, said He is a good shepherd. He called Himself good. Let’s see other scriptures:

Matthew 7:17 “Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.”

Jesus likened good people to good trees that produce good fruit.

Matthew 7:20 "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them"

Jesus then taught how to discern between the evil and good preachers—by looking at their fruit or works. If they are good people, we will see it by their good works, and if they are evil people, we will see them by their evil works. Now take a look at the following verse:

John 10:32 "Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?"

Jesus said this to the Jews who wanted to stone Him. According to the Law of Moses, people who proved to be wicked and evil through their works were supposed to be stoned to death depending on the nature of the evil work they have done. Jesus knew the law and that is why He said, "I have showed you many good works, why do you want to stone me?" In other words He was saying, "I have proved to you that I am a good person through my works, so why should you stone me?"

Jesus never refused to be called good. There must be something else He was talking about in Luke 18:18-19, when He said no one is good.

Why? Because we know from the other scriptures we have read that Jesus called Himself good.

Jesus was simply saying to the young ruler, “Don’t ever call me good if you don’t want to call me God!” Jesus knew the guy wasn’t really obedient to all His teachings and wasn’t really submissive to Him. Jesus knew that the guy was a hypocrite. He was only pretending to be a follower and a lover of Jesus’ teachings.

When the guy said, “good master,” he didn’t really mean it from his heart. Jesus’ reply can be paraphrased like this, “If you call me good, then you should make me your God also.”

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE GOD-MAN UNION

I have showed the revelation behind Jesus being the Son of God. In this chapter (as I close the section of Jesus' Deity) I want to share with you how this revelation can become a reality in your personal life. I mean, how you can live out this revelation.

"How can Jesus be both God and God's Son?"—was a question that was posed at me about six years ago. Though I was a strong and well versed believer on the deity of Jesus Christ, what this group of people argued about got me thinking. It made me want to study the bible more concerning the subject of Jesus' deity. That group wanted to dismiss the fact that Jesus is God. They taught that He is just smaller than God and is a little god.

"Is He God or is He God's Son?"—the question kept on pondering me. As I continuously contemplated on the issue, the Holy Spirit, who always guides us into all truth, rubbed a certain thought in my spirit, "He is both God and God's Son."

I was so excited; I had gotten a revelation. I had been enlightened. "But how is that so, Holy Spirit?"— I wanted some explanation and some scripture verses to support that. Accordingly, I engaged myself into a period where I prayerfully 'searched the scriptures' trusting the Holy Spirit would reveal His secrecies. As an answer to my prayer, the unknown truths were revealed; John 1 verses 1 and 14 came to light in the eyes of my spiritual understanding.

John 1:1 says, "In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God and the Word was God."

Now the 'Word' here is God Himself, right? If you leap over into verse 14 you read, "And the Word (that is, God) became flesh and.....we beheld his glory as of the only begotten (Son) of God." John 1:14 (Parenthesis mine)

You see; when God became a man in the person of Jesus, that's when He became 'the Son of God'. Jesus Christ is God who made Himself the Son of God. He is both God and God's Son.

In this chapter my main objective is to show you how you can change your life through this revelation.

I am talking about what I call, "The God-Man Union". When God became flesh He was made 100% a human being, and while at the same time was 100% God. He becoming a man was a sign to mankind that God had come to unite with them. (Jesus is a man version of God)

God, in the person of Jesus Christ, came to live on earth; and because He was a God-man, He would heal the sick, cast out devils, walk on water, raise the dead, multiply bread, and would speak to the raging wind such that His disciples would ask, “Who is this man?” In other words they said, “What type of a man is this who can function like God?”

They did not know that Jesus had come to show and give them a new type of life. Jesus was a man who had the DNA of God in Him. He was a God-man and He wanted that very same life to be in everyone on earth. It’s a pity that most Christians don’t know how to take advantage of this life—the God kind of life. They still like to live the ordinary life they received from their parents. That’s not God’s will. God wants you to have His life.

This life is in every Christian. Through Christ we have been made superior beings on earth. We should function like God here on earth. It’s about time that we begin to speak to situations to change. It’s about time that we begin to heal the sick, to raise the dead and to perform miracles in our homes and workplaces.

No one should die of HIV if you are there. As a Christian you are a saviour in your own world. You carry God; when you show up solution should show up, hope should show up, life should show up. You are the salt of the earth. Jesus expects you to be doing everything He ever did. You have been made a God-man. You are no more ordinary. Say, "I refuse to be ordinary! I have been created for glory and virtue!"

This world is getting corrupted day by day. Even nature itself is being corrupted; regions that used to yield enough rainfall are now becoming dry lands. In almost the whole world people are unceasingly confessing that things are getting worse by the day; children are becoming wilder.

But the bible says, "The creation is earnestly waiting for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Romans 8:19). The corrupted world is waiting for you sons and daughters of God. It is waiting for you to give it life; to prophecy good to it. When ordinary men of the world are crying and are fearful of the future, don't cry with them, but rather speak life to them. You are a god-man; a son of God as Christ is.

The bible says, "When men are cast down you shall say, 'there is a lifting up.'" (Job 22:29) You are a god-man and you are supposed to function like God on earth.

It is true—you have been united with God in Christ. You are a god-man on this earth. Begin to shine.

Jesus came on earth to unite with men. He made men to be sons of God; men were as a result raised to the position of God, though not entirely equal with God, but were made bonafide sons of God—heirs of God. We were made participators of the God kind. We have been made to sit on the same throne with Christ. Whenever you say Jesus reigns, bear in mind that He reigns with us and through us; He is ruling the world through us. He is the head we are His body.

If Jesus doesn't fail there is no need for us to accept failure either.

Ephesians 2:6, "and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (ESV)

2 Peter 1:4, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature....."

PART TWO:

THE DEITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE PERSONALITY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Before I explain that He is God, someone may want to know whether He even is a person.

I once met a certain guy who taught that the Holy Spirit does not have a personality, and he addressed Him as an 'it'. This is how a lot of people address Him; they call Him an 'it'.

They think the Holy Spirit is only a certain power, some wind blowing, a cloud, fire, a dove, or perhaps some sensation they can feel. That is all wrong. Of course He can manifest Himself in all those ways but that is not what He is.

Is He a Dove?

Most people have got this picture of a dove each time they try to imagine what the Holy Spirit looks like. They refer to the day when John baptized Jesus.

Luke 3:21-22 “Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, 22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.”

Notice that the bible did not say He descended in a bodily shape OF a dove, but it says LIKE a dove. Before we even go any further, have you seen that the Holy Spirit does have a body? (Of course, it's not a physical body but a spiritual one)

Matthew 3:16 “And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.”

Mark 1:10 “And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:”

It was not a dove that descended, but it was the Spirit who descended LIKE a dove.

John’s testimony

Reading the same account from the gospel of John the Apostle (John the beloved), we see that he records that before John baptized Jesus, God had told him before what would happen the day that he would baptize the Christ. Here is what God had previously told John the Baptist before Jesus came to his baptism:

John 1:33 “And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.”

God had told John the Baptist that the person upon whom the Spirit shall descend and remain on, that person is the Christ. God did NOT say, “When you shall see a Dove,” but He said, “When you shall see the Spirit.” God said nothing to John about a dove.

This may prove to us that the Holy Spirit can be seen. God knew that John the Baptist already knew what the Holy Spirit looks like. He knew John the Baptist could identify the Holy Spirit.

But when the day came, John the Baptist said the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus like a dove on that day.

Imagine you are waiting for someone you know at an airport. Before the person arrives, probably you may be imagining and trying to picture how the person will be looking or dressing like. Perhaps your mental image of that person will be that of the previous time you saw him or perhaps how you always see him dressed.

Let's say you last saw the person wearing a white suit. You might be imagining seeing the person in a white suit, when suddenly the person arrives in a brown suit. You cannot ignore the person simply because he came in a different form than what you were expecting.

Despite the fact that you were expecting someone in a white suit you will still go to meet the person because the person's face, complexion, height, etc. — will still be the same. What the person will be wearing doesn't matter.

God knew that John knew what the Holy Spirit looked like, so He did not need to tell him the manner in which He would come. He just said you only have to look for the Spirit. When the day came, the Holy Spirit came in a different outfit; He came in a different formula—He came like a dove.

Probably He descended in a way that can be likened to that of a dove when it is landing. Despite all that, John knew that it was the Spirit of God and not a dove. That is why he said He came LIKE a dove. He is not a dove.

Is He merely some power?

Zechariah 4:6 "Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."

God was showing Zerubbabel that He would be with Him in his building of the Temple despite the oppositions he faced. God told him that it will not be by his (Zerubbabel's) might or his power that he would do the work in face of opposition; but it would be by the Spirit of the Lord. It would make sense if God had said, "but by my Power and Might," but God didn't say that. He said, "But by my Spirit."

The Holy Spirit is NOT a power but He is the Person with power.

Jesus addressed Him as 'He'.

John 16 is the chapter in which Jesus told his disciples that He would send the Holy Spirit to be with them after He himself ascends into heaven.

John 16:13-15 “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. 14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. 15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you”

Jesus never said, “When it comes,” but He said, “When HE comes.” This definitely makes Him a person. Notice how Jesus used the pronoun ‘he’ when He addressed the Holy Spirit.

The bible tells us that He is God.

John 4:24 “God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.”

The bible tells us that He is the Lord

2 Corinthians 3:17 “Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”

He is not a thing because He can talk

Acts 28:25-26 And disagreeing among themselves, they departed after Paul had made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

26 "Go to this people, and say, "You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive."(ESV)

When Paul quoted this verse from the book of Isaiah, he pointed out that it was the Holy Spirit who spoke those words. Let us go to the book of Isaiah from where Paul quoted these words.

Isaiah 6:8-9 "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not."

Isaiah said he heard the voice of the Lord, but Paul told the Jews that it was the Holy Spirit who was talking to Isaiah. This is the reason why Paul said in 2 Corinthians that the Lord is that Spirit.

2 Corinthians 3:17 “Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”

He called Paul and Barnabas to Ministry

Acts 13:2 “As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.”

From this scripture, the Holy Spirit spoke (Of course, through a certain prophet who was present) and He said He was the one who had called Paul and Barnabas to the work of the ministry. So everywhere in the bible where Paul says that Jesus Christ called him we should understand that it was the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Christ, who called him.

You see; if you do not understand the Holy Spirit you will never understand God. An understanding of God is only possible if you have an understanding of the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:11 “For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God”

We only need the Holy Spirit in order to understand God because He is the one who can reveal and manifest to us the deep things of God.

The Holy Spirit is the one who reveals and manifests the whole trinity. He is called the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of the Father, and the Spirit of God. This means that He can manifest the presence of Jesus Christ, that of the Father, as well as the presence God (of the whole trinity combined). Let's read from the following words of Jesus how this is so.

Mark 13:11 “But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.”

Luke 21:14-15 “Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist”

Matthew 10:20 “For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.”

Jesus left us with the Holy Spirit when He went to heaven. From the preceding scriptures Jesus showed us that the whole trinity will speak through us when we are brought before judges because of the gospel.

Nevertheless, this is only possible through the Holy Spirit whom He left with us. When Jesus said in Luke 21 that He Himself would give us a mouth and wisdom, you have to bear in mind that Jesus himself is in heaven right now. It is only the Holy Spirit who is with us right now and is the one who manifests Christ's wisdom to us and through us.

Luke 21:14-15 "Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist"

When Stephen spoke with that wisdom in Acts 7, the bible did not say that it was Jesus who was speaking through him, but it says it was the Spirit.

Acts 7:10 "And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake"

CHAPTER NINE

THE HOLY SPIRIT AS THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST

Romans 8:9 “But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.”

The Holy Spirit is the one who brings the presence of God in a place. If you say Jesus Christ is in me, you are pointing to His Spirit in you. Jesus is in heaven right now, and He has a body of flesh and bones (Luke 24:39). If He had entered into you with such a body you would have physically felt Him entering into you the day you received Him into your heart.

In fact, you would have grown fat that day. It was only His Spirit that entered into you and that Spirit of Christ is the Holy Spirit. God is in heaven but He can only be in another place through the Holy Spirit who is the Spirit of God.

When you hear the voice of God it is the Holy Spirit who will be talking to you because He is the one in you. We have read what Paul said in Acts 28 when he quoted Isaiah; he said it was the Holy Spirit who spoke to Isaiah; despite the fact that Isaiah had said, “I heard the voice of the Lord.”

We know it was Jesus who appeared to Paul on his journey to Damascus and called him. But when we read Acts 13, the Holy Spirit said He was the one who called Paul to the work of ministry. The Holy Spirit is the one who brings the presence of Jesus to us.

Now I want you to look at Revelation 1; there is something interesting there. You must first of all understand that John called this book the Revelation of Jesus Christ. He did not call it the revelation of end times. It’s a book in which Jesus Christ was being revealed to John.

Revelation 1:1 “The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:”

After John introduces the book, he then narrated how, when he was in the Spirit, saw Jesus appearing to him.

Revelation 1:10-18 "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. 12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: 18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death."

John saw the Lord Jesus Christ and the Lord told him that He wanted him to write everything he would see and then send the letters to the seven churches in Asia Minor. The next thing, which we are about to read, the Lord began to tell John what he was supposed to write to each of these churches.

Revelation 2:1 “Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;”

The Lord then told John to write something to the church that was at Ephesus. Jesus described Himself first to the church and then gave His message. But when He finished giving it, He then plainly told the church who exactly was speaking to them. Let's read:

Revelation 2:7 “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches ...”

Did you see that? It was the Spirit who was speaking.

But you see; He really looked like Christ, and not only did He look like Christ but He even identified Himself as Christ. If you go back to chapter 1 He had said, “I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen...”

He did NOT say, “I am representing the one who lives and was dead (that is, Jesus Christ,)” but He said, “I AM HE who lives and was dead,” thus calling Himself Jesus Christ.

So you see; John saw the Holy Spirit on the isle Patmos, and he said it was a revelation of Jesus Christ. He called the Holy Spirit Jesus Christ. This is the same person whom Paul met on his way to Damascus. That’s the Spirit of Christ.

This is the reason why John in our main text said, “....these three are one.”

Jesus identified Himself as one with the Holy Spirit.

John 14:16-17 “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; 17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.”

In telling His disciples about the Holy Spirit, Jesus called Him another Comforter and the Spirit of Truth. A few verses back in the same chapter Jesus had previously called Himself The Way, The Truth and The Life (John 14:6). If Jesus Christ is the Truth and then calls the Holy Spirit the Spirit of Truth, He is simply making the Holy Spirit His Spirit—the Spirit of Christ (Christ is the Truth).

In the last portion of John 14:17 we hear Jesus telling His disciples that they already knew this coming Comforter because He had already been living with them, but would later be in them. Jesus was referring to Himself because He was the one who had always been with them. Let's read the next verse.

John 14:18 "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you."

Here Jesus is still talking about the same thing. He did not want to leave His disciples without comfort after He Himself had gone to heaven. So He promised them that He would ask the Father to send them the Holy Spirit.

Notice that He did NOT say, "The Holy Spirit will come to you," but rather He said, "I WILL COME to you." He made Himself that same Comforter whom the Father would send. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Christ because He is the one who reveals and manifests Christ in us and through us.

Have you ever wondered what the Holy Spirit looks like? Here is the answer: He looks exactly like Jesus Christ. Of course Jesus' face is NOT like the one on the cover of this book. That one is just a cover for the book.

Peter spoke about the Spirit of Christ

1 Peter 1:10-11 “Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: 11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it [He] testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow” (Parenthesis mine)

Just like Paul who told us that the Holy Spirit was the one who spoke to Isaiah, Peter tells us here who exactly was talking to and through the prophets of old. In his letter he said the Spirit of Christ was the one who showed all those things to the prophets who prophesied about the coming, the death, burial, resurrection and ascension of Christ.

The Holy Spirit is called the Spirit of Christ when He reveals and manifests Christ to a person or through a person.

CHAPTER TEN

THE HOLY SPIRIT AS THE SPIRIT OF THE FATHER

He is called the Spirit of the Father when He manifests and reveals the Father to us, in us, and through us. The Holy Spirit is the one who brings the presence of the Father in a place. The Father who lives in heaven can only be in another place through His Spirit.

John 14:10-11 "Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake."

Have you ever taken a short break just to think who Jesus was talking about when He said, ‘My Father in me’? We know His Father was in heaven because He said it in different places in the scriptures. The Holy Spirit was the one whom we know was in Jesus.

If we revisit Luke chapter 1:35, we will notice that the angel told Mary that the Holy Spirit would overshadow her and, as a result, the child that would be born would be called the Son of God. I explained before that the angel was merely saying that the Holy Spirit would be the Father the child.

Luke 1:35 “And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.”

So the Father who lived inside of Jesus was the Holy Spirit— the Spirit of the Father.

Romans 8:15 “For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.”

The Holy Spirit is the one who brought the presence of the Father into our spirits. The reason we believe that God is our Father, and is in us, is simply because His Spirit who is in us is the one who gives us an assurance that we are His children. He manifests and reveals the Father to us, in us, and through us.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

THE HOLY SPIRIT AS THE SPIRIT OF GOD

From our main text (1 John 5:7) God is a three in one God—the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit. There are some people who get confused with this teaching and they end up thinking that there are three Gods. Nevertheless, it is not like that. There are three persons who are one God. Did you get it?

These three persons cannot be separated though. The only reason I picked each individual person to describe Him on His own is only so that I can clarify how such a one is a person of the trinity.

I think the reason behind the misunderstanding that there are three Gods only comes when one addresses them as God the father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. I believe that if we address them as the bible addresses them the confusion may be removed.

You have to remove the word God and simply say the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. If you say, God the father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, some people will take it as if you are saying there are three Gods. Though it's not wrong to say God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, I believe that in order to deal with the misunderstanding I have mentioned it is better to say it as the bible says it.

Saying the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, makes them three persons who are One God.

1 Corinthians 13:14 "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen."

In that scripture Paul mentioned the trinity. If you have carefully taken notice of something in that verse, Paul mentioned the word Lord once and the word God once. He did not want to talk about the trinity in a way that would lead his readers to think that there are three Gods or three Lords. He is stressing the fact that there are three persons but one God and one Lord.

What about Ephesians 4:6 which say God is the Father only?

Those who are against the doctrine of the trinity use Ephesians 4:6 to say that there is one God, the Father only and the other two are not God at all. Let's read it first.

Ephesians 4:6 "One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all."

I chose to respond to this question at this point, after I have explained a lot about the deity of Jesus Christ and of the Holy Spirit. I know at this point it's now easy for me to respond to this question or misunderstanding. If you can take a look at it clearly, that portion of scripture says the Father is through all and in you all. I explained that the Holy Spirit is called the Spirit of the Father when He manifests and reveals the Father to us, in us and through us.

I also proved from the scriptures that the Holy Spirit was the one Jesus pointed to when He said my Father who is in me (Luke 1:35)

Luke 2:48, 49, 51 "..... his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. 49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?.....but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart."

Well, that was the story when Jesus was left behind in Jerusalem at the age of 12. When His parents found Him, His mother said to Him, "I and your father were looking for you with sorrow." Notice she said, "Your father," referring to Joseph.

Jesus' response should alarm you if you meditate on it. He replied, "Don't you know that I must be doing my Father's business?" Jesus was simply telling His mother the fact that He knew that Joseph was not His real father.

He wanted to remind His mother about what she was told by the angel before she had even conceived her son. Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit who overshadowed His mother as His real Father. The last part of that scripture says her mother kept all those sayings in her heart. She knew what her child was reminding her of.

Ephesians 4:6 "One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all."

I believe it is now clear that the One God and Father of all who is through all and in us all is the Holy Spirit. He is the one who brings the presence of the Father in a place.

Jesus said He is one with His Father

We have seen that Jesus made Himself one with the Holy Spirit. He also made Himself one with His Father.

John 14:8 "Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. 9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?"

Jesus said, "If you have seen me you have seen the Father." Jesus is the man version of God.

John 10:30 "I and my Father are one"

He said it!! He is one with His Father; and if you have seen Jesus you have seen the Father; and if you have seen the Holy Spirit you have seen the Father because they are ONE.

So Ephesians 4:6 is talking about the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; that they are ONE God who is above all, through all and in all of us.

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE SPIRIT OF GOD

We have talked about Him as the Spirit of Christ and the Spirit of the Father when He reveals and manifests their person to us. He is called the Spirit of God because He manifests and reveals the whole trinity in a place.

He is the one who makes God omnipresent. The Holy Spirit reveals God everywhere.

The bible says,

“.....the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father ...” John 15:26.

He proceeds from God into every place where God is to be manifested or revealed. This is why we say God is omnipresent. It is because His Spirit is everywhere.

Genesis 1:1-2 “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. 2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.”

If we dive straight into verse 26 we hear God say, “Let US make man.” You see; God said, “US.” He was referring to the whole trinity—the Father, the WORD (Son) and the Holy Spirit. So if you now return to verse one, it is the three in one God who created the heavens and the earth.

When God wanted to create the earth, Genesis 1, on verse two, told us about His Spirit who was present on the face of the waters. I want you to understand that the one who said, “Let there be light!” was the Spirit of God because He was the one who was present on this earth, and thus making God (the whole trinity) to be present also on the earth.

The Holy Spirit is the one who makes God (the Father, the WORD (Son) and the Holy Spirit) omnipresent in every place. He is the one who created the whole earth and Adam also.

Job 33:4 “The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.”

That was Elihu, Job's friend, who knew who exactly had made (created) Him. You see; it was the Spirit of God who created Adam. God, through His Spirit made the heavens and the earth and all the creatures.

CONCLUSION

John 1 tells us that it was Jesus who created the earth; the whole bible tells us that it was the Father who created it, while Genesis 1 shows us that the Holy Spirit, in whom was the Father and the Word, created the heavens and the earth.

You cannot separate them—THEY ARE ONE. They are three persons of course, but if you have seen one you have seen all. The Holy Spirit is the one who makes the trinity One. I believe I have made it clear and the Lord will help you to understand this mystery.

There are no three Gods but they are three persons who are One God. Some say it is one person who changes office. No!! That is not it, that's wrong.

There are THREE PERSONS who are one God.

A better way to understand this is by looking at how you were made by God. You are three in one. You are spirit, soul and body. There are no three you; but it's one you who is on three dimensions. More about man's make up I explained in my book, "The hidden man of the Heart."

1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."
